

Philips' Karwal and GTL MD get CII Awards
August 30, 2002
The Financial Express

Our Corporate Bureau
New Delhi, Aug 29

Philips India Ltd senior vice president (consumer electronics) Rajeev Karwal and Global Telesystems Ltd (GTL) chairman & managing director Manoj Tirodkar have been awarded Confederation of Indian Industry's (CII) Young Manager Award and Young Entrepreneur Award respectively.

CII Young Manager Award, dedicated in the memory of late Subrata Lahiri, former managing director, Carrier Aircon Ltd. The award has been given to Mr Karwal for establishing LG Electronics brand name in India in the span of to years and his subsequent work in Philips, CII said in a statement. CII Young Entrepreneur Award has been given to Mr. Tirodkar for starting GTL at the age of 23 and help the company to grow at a Rs.800 crore global entity.